The scarecrow competition was also well supported and the traffic seemed to slow down a little whilst they were on display. Maybe this could become an annual event? A grant of £350 has been received from ELDC and also £113.50 in cash has been raised from the afternoon tea. Perhaps this cash and the Christmas Quiz cash (£39) can be used for planters/plants in the village?
10. Report from West Ashby Day – In blazing sunshine the second West Ashby Day took place. The Church and Churchyard have had a good clean and spruce up. A picnic lunch was enjoyed in the shade of the Yew Tree and two history talks were well received in the afternoon. Following a short service to round off the afternoon we adjourned to the village hall for a BBQ and meet the neighbours chat. This was attended by over 50 people. A mural has also been created and once complete it is hoped will be framed and installed in the village hall. The Church committee also organised an auction of promises which raised nearly £600.
